Mom, You may be surprised to learn that this email has already been posted and addressed on my web site. You can find all you need to know about it's fraudulent nature by going to <http://www.partisanpropaganda.net> This one is third from the top, (until my next post) in the table of contents. Check out - 03-06-12 "Please forward without comment".

This chain e-mail was written on extensively years ago by numerous fact checking web sites. One of them called this one "a favorite", because it was so ridiculous. The original essay was written by a conservative writer as a satire. It has been picked up as the gospel truth by people who like their prejudices validated.

It is sort of an unlikely coincidence that this slander from 2008 would be circulating so widely again that I am getting it from two different parts of the country within days of each other. This gossip on steroids travels like wild fire. I wonder who is fanning the flames.

I can see why the other chain was titled "Please forward without comment". This guy's comment was a peach. This forwarder's Thomas Jefferson quote has got to send Jefferson rolling over in his grave, the context is so inappropriate. The sad thing is people get so self-righteous about things they are misinformed about that they sometimes do stupid & harmful things. And who is picking a fight with who. I would say passing around slander is pretty aggressive, even if you choose to think it is true.

Dale, I feel very angered at this claim, because I don't believe it. But, of course, that is because I hear it with my filtered ears, just as those who hear it with a fervent 'yeah, yeah' response hearing it with their 'filtered ears'. Could it be really true that the author of this message is deliberately putting out an out and out LIE in his quoting a documented date and televised program? If Obama really did give this answer, it is no wonder why people are accusing him of favoring of being a Muslim, and I would like to know what was he thinking? Actually I could agree with him in the sense that we should be promoting peace between distrusting nations, trying to reduce our image of a warring, bullying, aggressive super power but his answer was much too naive and bound to be misunderstood, and I would think he would have been much too wise to say it that way.

Is there a way to fact check something like this? Did he really say this?

From Sunday's 07 Sept. 2008 11:48:04 EST, Televised "Meet the Press" THE THEN Senator Obama was asked about his stance on the American Flag.

In a message dated 3/7/2012 8:42:28 A.M. Eastern Standard Time, an old retired guy writes:

"When injustice becomes law, resistance becomes duty" -Thomas Jefferson-
Don't pick a fight with an old man. If he is to old to fight, he'll just kill you. Truer

Words Were Never Spake,

Yes, he told us in advance what he planned to do. Few were listening.

The following is a narrative taken from a 2008 Sunday morning televised "Meet The Press".

From Sunday's 07 Sept. 2008 11:48:04 EST, Televised "Meet the Press" THE THEN Senator Obama was asked about his stance on the American Flag.

General Bill Ginn' USAF (ret.) asked Obama to explain WHY he doesn't follow protocol when the National Anthem is played.

The General stated to Obama that according to the United States Code, Title 36, Chapter 10, Sec. 171...

During rendition of the national anthem, when the flag is displayed, all present (except those in uniform) are expected to stand at attention facing the flag with the right hand over the heart. Or, at the very least, "Stand and Face It".

NOW GET THIS !!

'Senator'Obama replied:

"As I've said about the flag pin, I don't want to be perceived as taking sides". "There are a lot of people in the world to whom the American flag is a symbol of oppression.." "The anthem itself conveys a war-like message. You know, the bombs bursting in air and all that sort of thing."

(ARE YOU READY FOR THIS???)

Obama continued: "The National Anthem should be 'swapped' for something less parochial and less bellicose. I like the song 'I'd Like To Teach the World To Sing'. If that were our anthem, then, I might salute it. In my opinion, we should consider reinventing our National Anthem as well as 'redesign' our Flag to better offer our enemies hope and love. It's my intention, if elected, to disarm America to the level of acceptance to our Middle East Brethren. If we, as a Nation of waring people, conduct ourselves like the nations of Islam, where peace prevails - - - perhaps a state or period of mutual accord could exist between our governments"

When I become President, I will seek a pact of agreement to end hostilities between those who have been at war or in a state of enmity,
